“From Shakespeare to the Inklings: The Bible’s Impact on Creative Imagination”

This Inking-Plus Premiere Global Conference will be held in Montreat, NC, by the Presbyterian Heritage Center on March 16 – 18, 2022

This unique Inklings (C.S. Lewis, Tolkien, etc.) conference highlights the Bible’s impact on Western Civilization, affecting authors, musicians and artists from the 15th century through today. It will change your world view – from the medieval society lit only by fire to the incandescent musings and works of the Oxford-based Inklings – C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, Dorothy L. Sayers, and others – of the 20th century.

Come learn from world-renowned scholars, who will reveal the Bible’s influence on the:

- ★ the greatest English Playwright (William Shakespeare);
- ★ the greatest English Epic Poet (John Milton);
- ★ the greatest English Novelist & Allegorical work of the 17th – 19th centuries (John Bunyan);
- ★ the world’s most popular legend – King Arthur and the Round Table – and its treatment through the centuries, especially by the Inklings;
- ★ leading 20th Century Christian writers from the Inklings (C.S. Lewis, J.R.R. Tolkien, Charles Williams, Owen Barfield, et al) to Dorothy Sayers.

Plus, there will be a limited museum display of rare items during the conference of medieval illuminated manuscripts, an original Folio of Shakespeare Plays from the early 1600s, first-editions of Inklings and much more! Limited attendance. First come, first served. Presenters include:

The Bible’s Impact on Shakespeare & Early

Renaissance Literary Icons Author, curator & professor Hannibal Hamlin, Ohio State University, will discuss the significant influence of the English-language Bibles on leading literary illuminators of the 16th –18th centuries – men and women.

Shattering the Stained Glass: Dorothy L.

Sayers & the Bible Co-director, Wade Center, Crystal Downing, will explore how Lewis, Sayers, and George MacDonald all used “stained glass” as a metaphor describing one-dimensional views of the Bible and Church.

Imperishable Flame: J. R. R. Tolkien & the Bible

Gifted speaker and Tolkien expert, Diana Glycer, Asuza Pacific University, will talk about scriptural influences in The Lord of the Rings and The Silmarillion, as well as Tolkien's work on the translation team of The Jerusalem Bible.

From Inspiration to Illumination: Telling the Story of the Creative Illuminated Manuscript Tim Ternes, program director of the Hill Museum & Manuscript Library, and curator, The Saint John's Bible will explore the Bible’s influence on medieval artists.

Notes: Please note that space for conference attendance is limited and the Presbyterian Heritage Center may have to implement a waiting list. Additional or substitute speakers may be made.

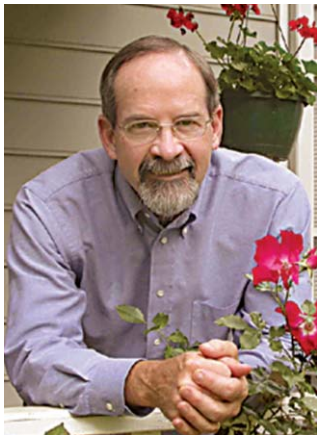

Shelley and Son Books specializes in the Inklings and the Wade Center VII. They carry more collectible Inklings books than any dealer in the United States. Additionally, their book tables at the PHC Inklings Conference (March 16 - 18, 2022) will have inexpensive reading copies and many new books by conference speakers.

Soldier, Writer, Inking: A Life of Warren

Hamilton Lewis

Telecasting from The Kilns near Oxford, Don King, Montreat College, will discuss this Inking member & Lewis sibling. Don's new book on this subject is expected to be published in 2022.

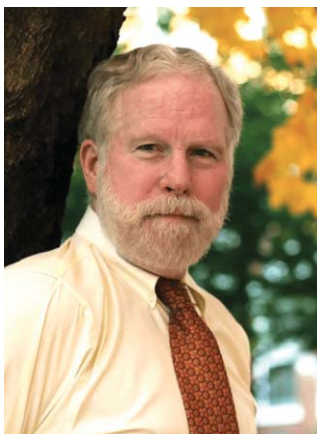

The Soul & the Soil: Tending King Arthur's

Lands From Medieval Devotion to Modern Magic

Editor, The Inklings and King Arthur, Sorina Higgins, Baylor University, will offer a close look at creation care as spiritual discipline in Arthurian legends from medieval times through the works of the Inklings.

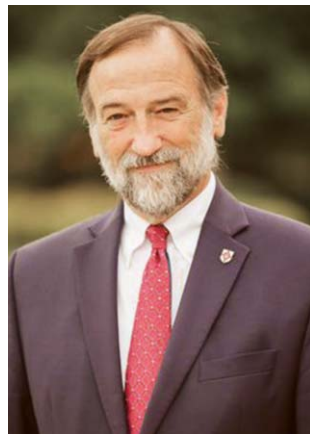

Pilgrim's Progress/Pilgrim's Regress – From

John Bunyan to C.S. Lewis

Co-director of the Wade Center, David Downing, will look at the allegorical novel that appealed to Reformation believers and Lewis' revisionist work for 20th Century audiences.

The Birth & Death of Literary, Art & Music

Styles Through the Millennium and The Bible & Faith in C.S. Lewis' Science Fiction

Author & lecturer Hal Poe, Union University, will delve into the cycles of literary changes in culture, as well as Lewis science fiction works.

Shakespeare and Lewis

A specialist on Shakespeare and C.S. Lewis, Dr. Sarah Waters will discuss how Lewis draws on Shakespearean texts across his canon. She'll focus on Shakespearean elements in Lewis' fiction and his apologetics, how Lewis communicates to us with Shakespeare, why Lewis' engagement with Shakespeare matters and, with a shift to some of her newer discoveries, just why people aren't talking (enough) about Lewis and Shakespeare yet!

Inspired Notes: Musical Transformations from the Medieval to the Modern

Noted musician and rare Psalter & Bible collector, Michael Morgan will offer a revealing impact of the Bible on music from medieval Gregorian chants, to hymn music during the Reformation, to Handel's Messiah, to changing styles through the centuries. An informative and engaging performance will highlight creative musical impacts. A display of his rare Bibles and Psalters will be the the PHC during the conference.
