Biographical Information

Heath K. Rada was the Moderator of the 221st General Assembly (2014) of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.). He is a retired executive of the American Red Cross and a former president of the Presbyterian School of Christian Education (now Union Presbyterian Seminary) in Richmond, Virginia. As an active church member, Rada has served in numerous capacities on the local, presbytery, and national levels of the PC(USA). Currently he serves on the boards of the Presbyterian Mission Agency, the Montreat Conference Center, and the Presbyterian Homes of North Carolina. He is a published author, a noted speaker, and has been honored numerous times for his contributions to his work and his community. He was North Carolina's first Community Educator of the Year, the first recipient to receive an honorary Paul Harris Award from the Richmond Rotary Club, the recipient of the Margaret Bowen Award in Christian Education, and was named one of Richmond's Humanitarians of the Year by the NCCJ. Rada's blogs, upcoming appearances and news from the Moderator are available at www.heathrada.org.
